

Feedback of RTI Nepal App

50 Public Information Officers trained on Right to Information

Freedom Forum developed short questionnaire to evaluate the use of RTI Nepal app, and collected feedback from 50 Public Information Officers from 11 districts of Province 6 and 7 in February 2018. The total number of the app downloaded is more than 700 by mid March 2018.

Public Information Officers using RTI Nepal App on their android smart phones.

Freedom Forum launched a ‘Right to Information (RTI) Nepal Mobile App’, first of its kind from the civil society organization in Nepal. The android app, an integrated package on several dimensions of RTI- from principles to practice-, is aimed at making public and the media persons aware on use of RTI and its benefit for contributing to the good governance endeavor in the country.

Download RTI Nepal app
Among the 50 participants 47(94%) downloaded the app.

Reason of not downloading app

3 participants use iOS smart mobile so, they couldn't download the app.

Use RTI app during the training session

Among 47 participants 95% used the app during the training.

83% PIOs reported that RTI Nepal app is very useful and remaining 17% reported partially useful.

Section of the content in the app

Among the concerned respondents (PIOs), most of them (79%) reported act and laws are useful which is followed by success story (56%), formats (39%), resources (37%) and discussion (33%).

“83% PIOs reported that RTI Nepal app is very useful and remaining 17% reported partially useful.”

What participants said.

- This app is important for us
- It is accessible in any place and time
- It is a useful app to know about right to information, so I have to encourage public about this app to secure public right.
- Success story should be provided also in Nepali language for general public
- Very good in public service delivering system
- Very useful app and its knowledgeable
- This app is important to get information about RTI
- Need to update as per time
- It is better to includes prevailing relevant laws and rules

The link to download the app is:

<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.yipl.rtinepal&hl=en>